

Middle School Area

Indian Trails Library's Middle School Area is intended for use by middle school students in grades 6-8. While all members are welcome to browse and check out materials from the Middle School collection, the computers and furniture in this area are reserved for the exclusive use of middle school students. Members who are not in middle school may be asked to move elsewhere in the library.

All members using the Middle School Area are expected to follow all library policies.